This document introduces the One Team AI service. Pricing and scope are confirmed at the time of contract.

ABOUT US

Built by a proven company

Built by a team with proven technology and hands-on experience running its own global brand — the same engineering we developed with universities and research institutes powers your web, app, and AI operations.

Samsung Electronics spin-off

A technology company spun off from Samsung Electronics.

AI Championship winner

Our AI engineering was recognized with a win at the AI Championship.

Global brand operator

We run our own global brand, so the playbook comes from real operations.

AX FEATURES

Cut labor costs with AX features

AI employees take over customer support, marketing, and finance. No new hires — it starts the moment you turn a feature on. Some features run on a separate subscription from the base plan.

Free design edits

Web Developer	Website design changes go live without waiting on an agency.
Site Operations Manager	Site posts, notices, events, and reviews — all the operational content.

AI content creation to ad campaigns

Marketer	Creates product pages and social content, then runs Meta ad campaigns and tracks results like an agency.
-----------------	--

Add custom AI features

Researcher	Builds the custom AI your industry needs and puts it to work in your service.

24/7 AI customer support

CS Agent	Handles customer support — exchanges, refunds, product questions — and sales around the clock, 24/7.
Products & Orders Manager	See products, stock, orders, and shipping at a glance and act on them right away.

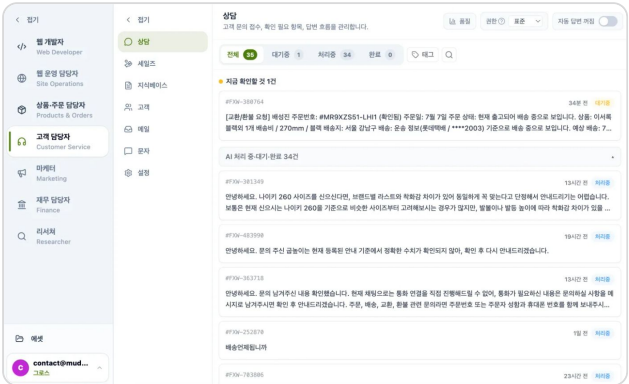

Automated finance & payroll

Finance Agent	Costs and revenue get organized automatically — you just review and approve.

Web and app together

- Everything in Web only + App only
- Run web and app as one
- Unified web-app maintenance

Web only, App only, and Web+App plans require a minimum 3-month commitment; early termination within the term incurs a penalty.

AX features (AI customer support, marketing, finance automation, etc.) and plugins (device connectivity, external API integrations, etc.) are not included in the subscription and are billed separately per feature when activated.

Web only, App only, and Web+App plans assume traffic typical of a small business. If concurrent usage grows enough to incur separate server and bandwidth costs, we will let you know in advance and discuss the additional cost with you.
